THE PASSING OF THE VOLUNTEERS.

"October 31, 1907, is a melancholy occasion. says the "Evening Standard" of this date. "To-day the Volunteer year closes, and it is the last Volunteer year. When the books are closed and the annual account rendered many regiments must, practically, cease to exist. Some—the class corps 'will probably disappear altogether. Others must be merged in the orangement of their neighbours, not being strong enough to enter the new Territorial force as omplete units.

"We take leave of the Volunteer regiments as such, with a sincere regret. For though we cherish few illusions as to any marked efficiency of our Volunteer forces, though we are aware that their organisation is loose, their drills too few and too superficial, their camp stendance too irregular, and their officers, in many cases, not worth year, much stendance too irregular, and their officers, in many cases, not worth very much, yet here has been a force that has served the country well. This force has come through many vicissitudes of fortune and popularity. In the days when the 'form, riflemen, form' movement was begun popular enthusiasm reached a high level, and the citizen soldier was greeted with the almost affectionate esteem of his fellows. Then followed a period of depression which grew more and more bitter. Yet Volunteering went on, and the force was fairly well filled if also fairly inefficient.

"And then on a day came the South African."

volunteering went on, and the force was fairly well filled if also fairly inefficient.

"And then on a day came the South African war, and England was stripped of troops, and ugly rumours of Continental combinations went some way towards producing such fears as the alleged imminence of Napoleon's descent on us aroused in the earliest years of the nineteenth century. Then we found the Volunteers useful. They were all we had. No one knew just how much they might be worth in a military sense. But their spirit was undeniable. They furnished companies to their Regular battalions at the front; they furnished excellent recruits for the Imperial Yeomanry; their picked marksmen went to the war as the C.I.V., and did well. Meanwhile, at home, recruiting became a fever. The numbers of the Volunteer regiments swelled and swelled until, indeed, in some cases they burst, and new battalions had to be created to take in the countless citizens who leaped at the chance of standing in the gate of England lest the content of the countless of the content of the countless citizens who leaped at the chance of standing in the gate of England lest the oppressor come.

"In a memorable year the Volunteers all went into camp for a fortnight of real hard work under strictly Service conditions, and came out of it so like men and soldiers and real regiments as to prove the astonishing value of a little thorough training. How much all this meant to England we may never know; for the lesson of this imposing array of numbers and patriotism could only he read in the accret hearts of those who then be read in the secret hearts of those who then were England's enemies. But it was an imposing array, and it did bring back Volunteering at a bound to its position.

"The war ended, and the inevitable reaction set in. With their country safe and their duties and pleasures once more pressure, on them, the and pleasures once more pressing on them, the temporary emergency men fell away. The bat-talions tinned, the extra battalions had to be disbanded, and the efforts towards a more real efficiency were once more abandoned in favour of the traditional and happy go lucky methods of the traditional and happy-go-lucky methods of training. In some ways, perhaps, the last state of the Volunteers was worse than the first. But they had served their country. Perhaps they had saved it. And we do not let them go without regret. In their place we are to have the Territorial Army—if possible. But the new force must largely depend on the extent to which the old force will contribute to it."

On the arrival of the brigade water was quickly played on to the centre of the fire and by their prompt action was confined to the stack. Within a quarter of an hour the danger of the fire spreading was altogether averted, and three quarters of an hour sufficed to utterly extinguish the flames and leave but a smouldering mass of wood which was quickly reduced to absolute inactivity.

DEMANDS FOR GOLD.

DIRECT FRENCH LOANS REFUSED.

(Gazette's Special Service.)

LONDON, Thursday

Mr. Pierpont Morgan's representative who went to Paris for the special purpose has failed to induce the Bank of France to export gold direct to America. Eight millions sterling are wanted and the Bank of France implied that it will lend London more gold if necessary. These negotations have disclosed the fact that America's hunger for gold is still far from satisfied

TRADE AND THE BANK RATE.

The following interesting letter signed by Mr. E. Mortimer Hasley, appears in the money columns of the "Times," and deals with the popular idea that a high bank rate is bad for

In the City to-day the one topic of converse ion is the raising of the Bank of England rate of discount to 7 per cent., a figure which it has not touched since November 27, 1873, on which date it was reduced from 8 per cent, to 6 per cent. No doubt much will be written on this subect as to the bad effect on the trade of the ountry, etc., and it may interest your readers to hear the other side of the question in the following extracts from Lord Overstone's evidence before the Bank Act Commissions in 1844. Lord Overstone was practically the founder of the present banking system, ideas being adopted by Sir Robert Peel.

"The Bank has no arbitrary power of raising or of lowering the rate of interest. The Bank is obliged to conform to the natural rate of interest, and many fallacies arise from the assumed power of the Bank of her own discre tion to raise or lower the rate of interest. She has no such power."

"The idea of the profits of trade being destroyed by a rise in the rate of interest is

"The idea of the trade of this country being eriously interfered with by any fluctuations in the rate of interest is entirely unfounded. The idea that a generally high rate of interest is disadvantageous, though entertained by many, is wholly erroneous."

"The rise in the rate of interest has been consequence of the great increase in the trade of the country, and the great rise in the rate of profits, and to complain of the rise in the rate of interest as being destructive of the two things which have been its own cause is a sort of logical absurdity which one does not know how to deal with.

"Pressure on many occasions, although inconvenient, is extremely salutary and bene

"The claims of the public require that the due regulation of the currency should not be made subservient to considerations of partial convenience to particular branches of the trading community."

'I conceive it to be quite impossible to pre erve a steady rate of interest. In a country like this, with a highly accumulated capital, with great enterprise, with a great spirit of speculation, with very extensive commercia relations with all parts of the world, and of a highly manufacturing character also, it appears to me impossible to avoid oscillations in the ate of interest."

"Keep up your rate of interest, and do not ear the consequences.

I am indebted for the above concise extracts to an essay by Mr. Alexander Macindoe on The Increasing Production of Gold and its effects upon Prices" read before the Economic Section of the Royal Glasgow Philosophical Society, November 14, 1906.

The Cairo Electric Railways and Heliopolis Oasis Co., which is the promoter of the present company, has sold or ceded to the latter, on certain conditions, divers lands in the Heliopolis Oasis of a total area of 201 hectares or thereabouts, and now cleared. During the first year of its existence this company has directed its efforts to the preliminary work necessary to the car rying out of its programme. It has made streets giving access to the lands, and established a large electric joinery, likewise opening quarries and factories for the making of artificial building material, formed of cement and silico-salcareous bricks. The company also has under construction a vast hotel situate in a park of 41 hectares (the surface built exclusive of the offices, will be 8,500 upon, square metres), a brasserie-restaurant, a build ing for the offices of the management, shops, flats, and private houses and villas. SOCIETE FRANCAISE D'ENTREPRISES EN EGYPTE-

The Cairo Electric Railway and Heliopolis Oasis Co. have combined with most of the great banking establishments in Paris in the formation of this new company. Its capital of 20,000,000f, is divided into 60,000 Preference shares and 20,000 Ordinary shares, all of the nominal value of 250f. each. There are also 25,000 Deferred shares. The object of the company is to undertake, especially in Egypt, operations of all kinds, whether relating to movable or to real property, to manufacturing or commercial, to public or private works. The profits will be divided as follows:—9 per cent to the legal reserve; 4 per cent to the share-holders, beginning with the Preference shareholders. Of the surplus, ½ per cent. shall go to each director and 1 per cent. to the chair man of the board of directors. THE SUGAR INDUSTRY.

The production of sugar in Egypt for 1907-8 seems likely to be of an excellent character. Owing to the sensible improvements carried out at the Ermente factory that establishment will treat 100,000 tons during the current year. This appreciable increase in the quantity dealt with is found in conjunction with a much lower cost of production than obtains in the other factories belonging to the Sucreries et Raf-fineries d'Egypte. In the coming season, therefore, the expense involved in forwarding sugar-canes from Ermente to Nag Hamadi will be avoided. The latter factory will, however, not suffer thereby, seeing that its own locality is capable of supplying sufficient raw material to satisfy all normal demand. The Hawamdieh refinery is working at its full capacity, a vessel having just landed at Suez a large cargo of Java sugar to be treated at this establishment. As regards the result of the last fiscal year (1906-7), the Paris "Information" states that the amount will be "some £50,000, after payments in respect of the 5 per cent debentures."
It adds that, as these debentures represent a sum of 20,000,000f., and are amortisable only as from 1910, it may be assumed that the net manufacturing profit, after payment of all working expenditure, will be about 2,250,000f. This latter deduction of the Paris financial paper is erroneous, while its estimate of profit is probably correct says the "Anglo-Egyptian Mail." One thing, however, is clear already, as appears from the experience of the last two yearsnamely, that the manufacture of sugar in Egypt is a remunerative undertaking, as opposed to the opinions expressed by so-called specialists immediately the failure of the concern became known. At the same time, we must point out that, if the "experiment" has succeeded, this is due largely to the skilful action of Harrari Pasha, the managing director of the company. Henceforth the sugar industry will constitute a valuable asset for the country, which hitherto has seemed to depend upon cotton alone

"EMPEROR OF SAHARA"

M. LEBAUDY AND HIS TENANT.

M. Jacques Lebaudy, "Emperor of the Sahara," has come into notice again to enliven the monotony of proceedings at the Palais de Justice. He is being sued by a tenant of one of his houses in Paris, the Consul of a foreign Power, to renew a lease and to reduce same from twenty-five to twenty thousand francs a year. The case in itself would have been "banal," but the moment of M. Lebaudy's name was connected with it every member of the Bar present in the court took an interest in it. No lawsuit by or against the nowcelebrated "Jacques I., Empereur du Sahara," is ever dull, the "Telegraph'a" Paris correspon-dent says, and Mattre Henry Robert, one of the most brilliant lawyers of Paris, who spoke for the Consul, helped to enliven it by his wit. According to him the Consul complained that he had been unable to obtain a renewal of his ease for the past two years, and secondly that he wished to ask for a reduction of the price, but had been unable to communicate with "his Majesty." In 1905 the renewal had been prosed by Mr. Guignes, better known as de Jouy, who represented his Majesty," but soon afterwards the Comte de Jouy fell from favour, and the Consul has since been unable to obtain satisfaction, and was, therefore, obliged to apply to the Court to ask it to order the renewal of the lease, as well as the reduction of the price, and also for an indemnity of 50,000 francs, partly as damages and partly as reimbursement for necessary repairs. On behalf of his client, Mattre Henri Robert asked what had become of "Jacques I." He had reason to think that he was still "Emperor" for he had in his possession a card with the following inscription: "Jacques Lebaudy; Empereur du Sahara; Roi des Oasis de Chujkayana : Prince de Tartafuy : Due d'Anols."

Counsel also added that he had seen letters recently written by "his Majesty," and dated at Troja, his "capital," one of which was ad-dressed to his client, and threatened him with the chastisement of the Consul's own Sovereign, to whom M. Lebaudy had asked to be presented, strangely enough, only a short time before through the good offices of the Consul. He had tried to trace the whereabouts of "his Majesty," and learned that "Jacques' I." had some time ago been in the neighbourhood of Milan, whither he had invited two English solicitors, his legal advisers. He received them in the country under a tent, over which floated his "imperial" flag, the colours of which wore azure, with three golden bees." His Majesty was clothed in a white mantle, and were a "imperial" crown. Since, added Maitre Henri rt, he has dismissed his advisers, and is now hiving in the strictest incognito in New York, where he desires so much to be un-known that he has all his letters addressed to the general post-office. Such at least, is the statement of the learned counsel, and there was nobody in the court to contradict him no even a lawyer to defend the interest of "his In fact, "Jacques I." seemed to be in such a predicament for legal advisers, Matre Henri Robert continued, that he re cently cabled from New-York to one of th of the court to ask him to take charge of his interests instead of his attorney. The "expose" of the eminent lawyer, as many well be imagined, kept the Court in a good humoni all the time, and even the judges could not help smiling. The decision will be given next

The seizure of a cargo of smuggled tobacco by the Regie Ottomane des tabacs created last week a certain excitement. On the 31st ultino the Direction of the Regie at Beyrout received telegraphic advice from Jable, near Lattakia, that a sailing vessel laden with tobacco and tombac was destined to disembark her cargo in these parts. An active and vigilant search was forthwith set on foot and after three days of watchful cruising and chesing the sailer "Mabrouka" was caught with 36 bales of tobacco weighing about 2650 kilos which were entrusted to the Captain of the port pending the trial of the rais of the sailing vessel and his men. Credit is due to Mr. Paul Falanga, who was acting for the absent Director Mr. Ducouseau, for the prompt manner in which the seizure was made.

It is rumoured here that the coaster S.S.

The unusual activity of the gunboat "Nasri Huda" that has lately lately been constantly plying between here and Saida and Sour lends a colour of probability to this persistent rumour.

POLO MATCH.

The King's Royal Rifle Corps played their first match, since their return, against the Kings Qwn Scottish Borderers on Tuesday. The 60th, who have just arrived, are by n means in their proper form, their ponies also are still unfit, but we can expect better things from them in the near future. Happening to catch the K.O.S.B. team at their best they sufferred theat by 4 goals to one. The winners are to be congratulated on their victory, they certainly played an excellent game, each member of the team doing his work and doing it well. "All is well that ends well" but Capt. Stoney seemed rather inclined to go up into the game too much, especially in the last 2 chukkers, and it was owing to him that Mr Seymour had a clear run on three different occasions; had he availed himself of these opportunities the score would have read differently. We look forward with keen interest to the return match.

NATIVE OPINION.

KHEDIVIAL HONOURS.

Are we going back to the days of decorat ng men ad infinitum ? Thanks to the marvel ous ability and courage of the "Times" correspondent in Cairo we have of late heard almost nothing about new "rithas" and "nishans." Our Pashas and Beys have not in-creased in number like our criminals and agita the purpose of giving him a first prize also for his share in the work.

The absence of all positive geological and palaeolithic evidence in Egypt says the author in conclusion, makes the close application of the European system of classification impossible, and it can only be said that the older implements dealt with closely resemble those of "the age termed palaeolithic in Europe."

The pamphlet is an interesting one even to those who have not made a close study of the subject, and is well worth buying if only for the photographs which illustrate it.

Treased in number like our criminals and agitators who now fill the land, and we were spared the effects of unhealthy growth at least on one side. Now it is whispered that the Government and the Palace have come to a compromise and that the door is to be opened for honour seakers once again. We certainly do not wish that door closed for ever; but we hope that this time it those who have not made a close study of the subject, and is well worth buying if only for the photographs which illustrate it.

(Aujourd'hui à midi) Il y a eu moins d'animation qu'hier mais l'allure n'a pas été mauvaise. Les vendeurs se tiennent de plus en plus sur la réserve, dans l'attente d'une repriseplus accentuée; et comme sur notre place les ventes sont généralement déterminées par la nécessité de liquider des po-sitions dont les marges sont rendues insuffisantes par la dépression des cours et rarement par un manque deconfiance dans l'avenir, on conçoit que la moindre élévation de la cote soit de nature à consolider la hausse; les banques se trouvant couvertes, cessent de harceler leurs clients et ceux-ci témoins d'une réaction après une longue série de moins-values ne se hâtent plus de se débarrasser de leur stock. C'est ainsi qu'on a vu ce matin sur diverses valeurs une demands en somme insignifiante avec affaires presque nulles occasionner une avance notable. Les meilleures nouvelles du dehors contribuent

Comme cela ressort de la situation que nous venons de décrire, les transactions n'ont eu aucune ampleur et se sont disséminées sur toufe la cote sans offrir rien de bien saillant. Après un début assez actif, l'ardeur s'est ralentie peu à peu et on a cloturé en pleine inaction. Ce sont les Comptoir, l'Investment, les Ritz Hotels, la Banque d'Athènes, la Cassa di Sconto, la National Bank, l'Urbaine et l'United qui se sontsurfout partagé l'attention. En se qui concerne la tendance, nous n'aons pas rencontré l'accord parmi nos agents les uns trouvent qu'il y a de la lourdeur, du tassement, enfin que les vendeurs ne cherchent toujours qu'à liquider à condition qu'on leur effre le prix; les autres sont d'avis, comme nous le disons ci-dessus, que les vendeurs plus confiants et désormais tranquilles du côté des banques cessent de jeter lears titres sur le marché et qu'une hausse est en perspective.

Quoiqu'il en soit, nous constatons pour au-jourd'hui une reprise qui semble donner raison à ces derniers.

A signaler en particulier la National Bank qui se relève de 20 3/8 à 20 11/16,les Dividen-des Tramways de 265 à 270,la Daïra de 12 1/4 123/8, la Cassa di Sconto de 43 à 46, les Nungovich Hotels de 16 1/2 à 16 3,4.

Sur les titres suivants la hausse est plus ré-duite : l'Agricole progresse de 7 15/16 à 7 31/32, les Dividendes Bière du Caire de 23 à 25, l'Obligation Crédit Foncier de 292 à 294 l'ancienne, et de 253 à 253 1/2 la nouvelle, les Lots Turcs de 156 à 157, la Banque d'Athènes de 105 à 107, la Delta Land de 1 5/16 à 1 11/32, l'Investment de 11/32 à 3/8, le Comptoir de 2 15/32 à 2 17/32 l'action et de 1 7/16 à 1 1/2 la fondateur, l'Union Foncière de 4 17/32 à 4 9/16, le Crédit Franco-Egyptien de 3 15/16 à Le Caire, Mercredi 13 Novembre. Le taux de l'escompte libre à Londres est renseigné en baisse de 1/8 à 6 5/8 pour cent.

Au Stock-Exchange, le Consolidé anglais a haussé hier de 1/8 à 82 3/8. L'Unifiée est restée inchangée à 99. La National Bank s'est relevée 20 3/8 en hausse de 1/2. La Daïra a avancé de 1/4 à 12 1/2 et l'Agricole également de 1/4 8. La Delta Light a été soutenue à 10.

A Paris, le Crédit Foncier Egyptien a gagné 12 francs à 682. La Banque d'Athènes a gagné 1 franc à 107. Les Lots Tures ont été fermes

Ici, la séance d'aujourd'hui a été la meilleure réponse aux pessimistes, hier encore triom-phants, en leur prouvant que notre marché n'est pas aussi atteint qu'ils veulent bien le entendre et qu'il suffit au contraire d'une légère amélioration de la situation euro-péenne pour que la hausse se produise.

De fait, le marché un peu indécis à l'ou verture, vu le brusque changement d'orienta-tion à Londres, s'est vite ressaisi et a salué par une hausse quasi-générale les premiers indices d'une rénovation des marchés anglais et amé-

Pour que cela continue, il suffirait d'un peu de bonne volonté de ceux qui détiennent des portefeuilles de clients obérés. Nous le souhaitons pour le bien-être général.

Dans le compartiment des Banques, la National Bank hausse de 1/2 à 20 3/8 en corréla tion avec Londres. L'Agricole suit à 7 7/8-15/16 en gain de 1/8. La Banque d'Athènes est en progrès à 105, La Cassa di Sconto gagne 4 fcs. à 44. Le Comptoir Financier se relève de La Delta Light se consolide à 9 9/16. La Daïra Sanieh remonte de 1/4 à 12 3/8. Le Crédit Foncier Egyptien avance à 675-676. La Béhéra recule à 21 1/4 et les fondateurs Allot ment à P.T. 46. La Compagnie Immobilière fermes à 0 5/16-3/8. Parmi les petites valeurs, la Delta Land est en reprise à 1 5/16-3/8. La New Egyptian fait de même 2 9/- 9/3. La fondateur Estates flé-ques.

Ainsi que les dépêches d'Europe nous l'ap prennent la situation s'est notablement amé liorée à New-York et par contre coup à Londre où le groupe égyptien a largement profité de la meilleure tendance.

Les efforts que faisaient les financiers américains ont donc abouti pour le plus grand bien de tous les pays ; aussi nos lecteurs nous pardonneront l'extrait suivant qui nous semble bon à méditer en Egypte :

"La Bourse de New-York tend à se ressaisir. Elle s'est raffermie, hier, réconfortée par les 155 millions de francs d'or, importés ou en route, par la conviction que la conférence des banquiers avait abouti et que les Compagnies de trusts avaient été remises sur pied, puis par la persuasion que M. Roosevelt alfait faire quelque chose pour rétablir la confiance, et enfin par le bruit que la Tennessee allait être rachetée par la corporation de l'acier. Ce transfert serait une des conditions imposées pour la réhabilitation des Compagnies de trusts, vu que la corporation avait prêté beaucoup d'argent à la Tennessee et qu'il était nécessaire de faire rentrer cet argent.

"Suivant le journal "La Poste" les banquiers, au cours de leur conférence, ont décidé de prê-ter main-forte à la Compagnie du Trust America ; ils ont déjà placé 5. millions de dollars dans cette Compagnie, et on s'attend à ce qu'ils y placent 5 autres millions, si toutefois les dministrateurs acceptent leurs conditions. Or, hier, a eu lieu la reprise des opérations de deux grands trusts, le Trust of America et le Lincoln Trust Company, ce qui semble montrer que ces deux Compagnies ont accepté les conditions des banquiers.'

A ce qu'il paratt la liquidation de la Cassa di Sconto se poursuit régulièrement et de façon très encourageante. Le 40% de l'actif a été réa lisé à ce jour et l'on affirme que les créanciers recevront la totalité de leurs créances et les actionnaires à peu près l'intégralité de leur capital. On ajoute même, mais ce n'est qu'une éventualité, que les actions valent actuellement le pair. Des pourparlers seraient également engagés en vue de la formation d'une nouvelle société qui reprendrait les affaires de la Cassa di Sconto

DESIRE FOR FRIENDLINESS.

LONDON, November 13.

A banquet has been given at Windsor at which 160 guests were present. Most brilliant and cordial toasts were exchanged by the King and the Emperor. Recalling the latter's visit from earliest childhood the King congratulated the Emperor on looking in such good health. He would never forget, he said, the kindness and sympathy shown by him on the occasion of the death of the great Queen. He assured their Majesties that their visits always gave sincere pleasure to himself and the Queen and the whole people. He fervently wished that prosperity and happiness might abound in the Emperor's great country for the maintenance of

The Emperor was deeply touched by the kind words of welcome and dwelt upon the dear memories of bygone days, especially his revered grand-mother and beloved mother. He recalled the happy childhood days spent at Windsor, and hoped that the close relationships between the two families would be reflected in the relations between the two countries confirming the peace of the world. The Emperor has taken Highcliffe Castle, at Christchurch, near Bournemouth, where it is expected he will stay for a fortnight.

London, November 13. Brilliant weather attracted about 1000 people to the Guildhall on the occasion of the En peror's visit. The decorations were most elaborate. The whole route from Paddington to the Guildhall was a mass of fluttering flags Many mottoes were noticed, including appro priate quotations from Shakespeare in German.

The Emperor, speaking at the Guildhall in reply to a toast in his honour, said that the main prop of the peace of the world was the maintenance of the good relations, between our two countries. "I shall further strengthen them so far as it is in my power. The wishes of my country coincide with mine. The future will then show a bright prospect and commerce may develop among nations who have learnt to trust one another.

Immense crowds heartily welcomed the Emperor in the city. The whole visit was a great success. The weather was beautiful, the spectacle magnificent, and the ceremony impressive. The Empress is prolonging her

MONEY AND SHARE MARKET.

(FROM OUR FINANCIAL CORRESPONDENT),

London, Nov. 8.

The Money Market.

Events in the financial world have moved rapidily during the past few days, and we now have a Bank rate of 7 per cent. the highest for 34 years, with prospects of a still higher figure in the near future. It seems to be to a extent a repetition of the state of affairs which prevailed in 1878. In the autumn of that year financial panic in America caused a heavy run on our gold reserves, and the Bank of England vere compelled to resort to a seven per cent rate. This was speedily followed by an eight per cent rate, and six days later on the 7th. of November, they further increased their mini mum to 9 per cent.

The present gold famine in the United States is admittedly a very serious one and unless the precious metal can be secured in sufficient quantities, or credit properly re-establishe the crisis may assume developments which have hitherto been unforeseen. Nevertheless while admitting the gravity of the position and the desirability that it should be relieved as speedily as possible, little justification is required for the action of the directors of the Bank of England in seeking to check these demands for gold. Already over six million have been shipped to New York, and our reserve, as shown by the statement issued yesterday morning, has fallen £3,139,000 on the week, bringing down the total to £17,695,000 a reduction of £1,381,000 on last year. The proportion to liabilities is now only 35.20 per nt. as compared with 38.3 in 1906. Sine the issue of the return the Bank's position has been strengthened by the receipt of £973,000 but it is understood that further sums are engaged for America, and although it is hoped that the present high rate will have the effect of attracting gold to London and limiting the demands from the other side, it is doubtful if it will be effectual in altogether stopping these demands. Moreover, it must be borne in mind that Egypt's gold requirements are yet- by no means satisfied. So far only £3,695,000 has gone to Egypt this season, and to place at a low estimate the probable sum required in order to complete the moving of the crop, it is reasonable to expect that this will not be less than three millions.

After the announcement of the Bank directors decision yesterday, the discount houses raised their deposit rates to 5 and 51 per cent. for call and notice money. In the discount market short loans were in demand at 41-51 per cent, and weekly accomodation realised up to 5) cent. A moderate business was done in 60 days' bills at its new rate, but no weekly ad vances were sought.

Re-sales from China yesterday caused relapse on the Silver market, and prices fell away 7/16 to 27, 9/16 for immediate and 27 g

With continually increasing discount rates, investment business is naturally at a very low ebb, and the tone of markets generally is heavy This state of things is likely to continue until the present stringency is past, and the financial position in America is more settled. Things have been much quieter there this week, and the runs on the banks have now practically subsided. All the commercial cities are now issuing Clearing House Certificates, and insisting on full notice of withdrawals. Nevertheless, as the New York correspondent of the "Telegraph" pointed out in his very able summary of the position, cabled on Tuesday, the rehabilitation of the financial community is a matter of months not days. The results of the rass spe culation of years, cannot be got rid of im mediately, and it is sate to say that it will be a very long time before complete confidence is restored. It is very satisfactory to note that both the Government and the high financiers are trying to point the moral of the present crisis, and it is hoped that the outcome will be the introduction of a better currency system. and the elimination of the elements which have so largely contributed to this state of things. A severe check must be placed upon unscrupulous directors and others who, for the sake of personal gain, are willing to run any riskswith other people's money, and in this work the millionaires who are now supporting Mr. Morgan can play a prominent part. May their efforts meet with the success they deserve.

The following quotation from an article which appeared in the "Times" to-day gives an adequate statement of the position :-

It would appear, from prolonged conference held in Mr. Morgan's art gallery, that there was lately some recrudescence of New York's nalady which involved serious discussion by its medical advisers; but, on the whole, it seems probable that the most important seat, of disease has moved from the capital and spread into the vast area of the States. This eing so, with a nation of 80 million souls depriving itself of currency facilities by means of hoarding, it becomes evident that, unle the evil is stayed, the amount of gold so far taken and ordered for shipment to the United States may easily be quite inadequate, and we are faced with the possibility of world wide strain and inconvenience in monetary circles, merelysbecause the American people takes it into its head to boycott its bankers. It is a preposterous position, and the world at large can claim to call on the United States Governcoin and stamp it with their image and superscription, and the fact that modern finance uses paper as well as coin does not for a moment relieve the Government of its responsibility. For American citizens to be hoarding like Egyptian fellaheen is a spectacle that puts economic civilization in the Bankruptcy Court. And it is the obvious duty of the American Executive to end this sorry

The most satisfactory feature of the week in London is the announcement that at last the dispute between the railway companies and their employées has been settled by mutual agreement to the formation of Con-ciliation Boards. For this happy result, which has been received with much sellef in the city. has been received with much relief in the city, thanks are largely due to Mr. Lloyd-George and the permanent officials at the Board of Trade. Although the A. S. R. S., admit that they have not got all they asked for, it is pleasing to note that they are anxious to give the new arrangement a fair trial, and that we are guaranteed against a railway strike for

Gilt-edged securities have been affected by the stringency of money, and after the an-nouncement of a 7 per cent bank rate yester-day Consols, which had been bid for at 82, 4, gave way sharply, and closed at 81% for or and 812 for the account. To-day the tone has been firmer, and Consols have recovered #.

There has been some liquidation of foreign Government bonds on Continental account as the result of the rise in our bank rate, and the market is flat. Yesterday Japanese issues fell 1 to 1, and they have further declined to-day Russians have also fallen away. The Pours close to-day at 741 and the last issue at 84xd.

so much anxiety during the past few months, and has kept the market in the depths of a general advance in prices took place. Im-mediately the bank rate decision was known, however, profit taking sent quotations down again. North Westers, which had advanced rapidly from 136‡ to 140, finished at 137‡; Midland Deferred closed at 59%, after being 60½, and Brighton, which went to 78½ in the norning, left off unchanged at 761.

The American market has been much steadier during the past week, and although on balance prices do not show much alteration, such changes as have taken place are mostly to higher levels. In view of the previous continual decline, it may be regarded as satisfactory that prices have gone no lower since our last Advices from the other side have been read more favourably, and although there is little likelihood that American shares will find much of a market here for the next few months there is steady buying of the lower-priced
